THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Preamble

WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA, having solemnly resolved to constitute India into a [SOVEREIGN SOCIALIST SECULAR DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC] and to secure to all its citizens:

JUSTICE, social, economic and political;

LIBERTY of thought, expression, belief, faith and worship;

EQUALITY of status and of opportunity;

and to promote among them all

FRATERNITY assuring the dignity of the individual and the [unity and integrity of the Nation];

IN OUR CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY this twenty-sixth day of November, 1949, do HEREBY ADOPT, ENACT AND GIVE TO OURSELVES THIS CONSTITUTION.

MISSION

The mission of any continuing judicial education is to improve the quality of judicial performance by helping judges to acquire the tools for professional competence. The concept of competence illuminates the issue of what makes a good Judge. It includes mastery of theoretical knowledge, developing problem-solving capacity, conceptualising the judicial mission, maintaining an ethical practice and self enhancement. At an operational level, the goals and objectives of judicial education are to meet the education, training and development needs of Judicial Officers. These needs are defined through a variety of analysis techniques and then addressed through the provision of specific education services.

TRAINING

At the Academy, Induction Programme, Refresher Courses and Advanced Training are conducted regularly.

The Training Programmes are mainly interactive in nature. Visits to Courts, Police Establishments, Jail, State Crime Records Bureau, Institute of Mental Health, Spastics Society, Tamil Nadu Forensic Science Laboratory, Revenue Departments including Survey, Railway Protection Force and General Hospital to witness Autopsy and Post-mortem are undertaken. The course curriculum gives importance to enhancing the Fundamental Principles of Law. It also includes Stress and Time Management, Court Management, Case Load Management, Forensic Science, Judicial Ethics, Consumer Law, Environmental Laws, Gender Justice, Labour Laws, Medical Jurisprudence, Criminology, ADR, IPR, Cyber Laws, Juvenile Justice and other Substantial and Procedural Laws.

LEARNING BY PARTICIPATION AND INTERACTION

The services offered by any programme of continuing judicial education is determined by need. We understand that adults learn best by participation and interaction. Consequently, our preferred approach is by interaction and participation. The programmes facilitate the participants to identify and prioritise the training services by being more interactive and participative.

INDUCTION TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR NEWLY RECRUITED CIVIL JUDGES – 2012

Tamil Nadu State Judicial Academy welcomed into its fold 165 newly recruited Civil Judges and took up the onerous task of guiding them to march with the sands of time and to brave the ebb and flow of the tide in their judicial career. The Hon'ble High Court, with the laudable aim of strengthening the justice delivery system had recruited the Civil Judges and had completed the selection process within a short span of time. After selection, the Officers were deputed to the Academy to undergo Induction Training.

The function to mark the Affirmation of Oath by the Hon'ble Chief Justice and the Inauguration of the Induction Training Programme was held at the High Court on 11th October 2012.

The Academy, under the able guidance of the Hon'ble Patron-in-Chief and the President and Members of the Board of Governors had formulated an intensive training programme for the newly recruited Civil Judges.

Initially, for a period of two weeks all the 165 Officers were imparted training on Judicial Ethics, Court Management, Time Management, Human Rights and Role of Courts, Ethics and Attitude towards the Litigant Public and on the necessity to maintain and uphold the dignity and decorum of the Office.

The Officers were then divided into two groups. One group, who had been given postings were asked to report before their respective Principal District Judges, who imparted training at the Districts as per the guidelines issued by the Academy. The other group was given continuous training on principles of Procedural and Substantial law at the Academy. After three months the groups were interchanged and training was conducted in the 2nd phase, both at the Academy and at the Districts.

The Speakers / Resource Persons included Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Court Judges, Former Judges of the Supreme Court and the High Court, Advocates and reputed Professionals in various fields. Separate sessions were allotted for interaction and the Trainee Officers were encouraged to interact, not only on the topics assigned but also draw knowledge from the immense experience of the Resource Persons.

At the Academy, the Officers were also taken for field visits to Legal Services Authority, Central Jail, Institute of Mental Health, Spastics Society of Tamil Nadu, State Crimes Records Bureau, Railway Protection Force Office and to witness autopsy at the Government General Hospitals. The Officers also visited the Tamil Nadu Forensic Science Laboratory for a week to acquire first hand knowledge. They were also imparted hands on training for 12 hours on computers.

The Officers were also assigned topics and asked to give presentations. This helped them to acquire effective communication and oratorical skills and also to pursue constructive research in the topics assigned.

The Officers were also given specialized training in Child Psychology / Child Welfare as stipulated under the provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act. Time was also allotted to impart training on effective Communication and Skills in Public Speaking. To further sensitise them on providing access to justice to the marginalized sections of the society, they were encouraged to interact with transgenders and social workers in the field. They were also exposed by the experts on possible areas of Human Rights Violations in Courts, and to the functioning of the Central Bureau of Investigation, the Narcotics Control Board and to the salient features of Cyber Crimes, Digital Evidence and Banking Frauds. A complete course in Yoga and Meditation skills was also conducted for the Trainee Officers. Films of social relevance were also screened and there was healthy and informative interaction.

The Officers were also given Booklets penned by Hon'ble Mr. Justice M.Y. Eqbal, the then Chief Justice and now Judge, Supreme Court of India. They were also given an exhaustive reading material and also books necessary to discharge their judicial duties.
